RECONSTRUCTION.

ORDER OF GENERAL POPE PROVIDING FOR THE REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

The Alabama papers of April 11 contain General Order No. 5, of Major General Pope, dated at Montgomery, April 8. After setting forth the provisions of the Reconstruction law, and the oath required to be taken by voters, the order says:—

In order to execute the provisions of the act referred to with as little delay as possible, the commanding officers of the Districts of Alabama, Georgia and Florida will proceed immediately to divide those States into convenient Districts for registration, aided by such information on the subject as they have or can obtain. It is suggested that the election districts in each State which in 1860 sent a member to the most numerous branch of the State Legislature, will be found a convenient division for registration. It is desirable that in all cases the registers should be civilians, where it is possible to obtain such as come within the provisions of the act, and that are otherwise suitable persons; and that military officers shall not be used for this purpose except in case of actual necessity. The compensation for registers will be fixed hereafter, but the general rule will be observed of graduating the compensation by the number of recorded voters. To each list of voters shall be appended the oath of the Register or Registers that the names have been faithfully recorded and represent actual legal voters, and that the same man does not appear under different names. The Registers are specifically instructed to see that all information concerning their political rights is given to all persons entitled to vote under the act of Congress, and that they are made responsible that every such legal voter has the opportunity to record his name.

As speedily as possible, the names of persons chosen for Registers shall be communicated to these Headquarters for the approval of the Commanding General.

The District Commander in each of the States comprised in this Military District is authorized to appoint one or more general supervisors of Registration, whose business it shall be to visit the various points where registration is being carried on; to inspect the operations of the Registers, and to assure themselves that every man entitled to vote has the necessary information concerning his political rights, and the opportunity to record his name.

A general Inspector, either an officer of the army or a civilian, will be appointed at these Headquarters, to see that the provisions of these orders are carefully executed.

District Commanders may, at their discretion, appoint civil officers of the United States as Registers, with such additional compensation as may seem reasonable and sufficient.

The Commanding Officer of each District will give public notice when and where the Registers will commence the registration, which notice will be kept public by the Registers in each District during the whole time occupied in registration.

Interference by violence, or threats of violence, or other oppressive means, to prevent the registration of any voter, is positively prohibited; and any person guilty of such interference shall be arrested and tried by the military authorities.

By command of Brevet Major General John Pope.

THE DEATH OF DR. LIVINGSTONE.—It is no longer doubtful that the celebrated explorer of Africa is dead. An official confirmation of the original report has been received at the British Foreign Office. On the eighteenth of May last, a dispatch from him, dated at Ngomana, stated, that the Zulus had been spreading ruin round about him at that region. His escort, by desertions and other causes, was there reduced to twenty men. The point he had arrived at was Kampunda, on the Northwestern shore of Lake Nyassa.—Between Marenga and Maklisoora he was set upon by people, some of whom were armed with bows and arrows and others with shields, spears and axes. Livingstone fired—killed two Zulus, and in the smoke was swept down by the tide of savages.—The blow of an assavung from behind him killed him outright. The fearful weapon went through the neck and spine up to the throat in front. Instant death ensued.—The enemy respected him when dead and he was buried after the manner of the country. Thus has perished, unfortunately for science, one of its most valuable and venturous spirits. No man in our time had been more useful in unfolding the mysteries attached to the distant and unexplored regions of Africa. His labors must always be gratefully acknowledged, because he was a pioneer into regions destined to be opened hereafter not so much by individual enterprise as by the commissions of governments. The British government, while making inquiries respecting the loss of so valuable a life, may with safety continue the explorations in Africa.

"OUR BRAVE DEFENDERS."

It is a curious fact that the Senate cuts down in the most remorseless manner ex-officers of the United States army. The nominations sent in by Mr. Johnson, for the most part, have been taken from the names of men distinguished for good conduct in the late war, and yet, notwithstanding their record, their heads fall in the basket and the majority still swings its inexorable axe over the remains of soldiers who fought for the Union.

THE SOUTHERN ORPHAN ASSOCIATION.—We have been for several weeks advertisers of a Gift Concert to be held in Baltimore, under the auspices of an association having for its object the providing of an asylum for the orphans of Confederate soldiers. The agents in Baltimore have lately been subject to inconvenience and arrest, and the public press has aided in many instances to produce a bad impression as to the reliability of the concern, and its honest intentions. Our belief is that the enterprise is a legitimate one, that its managers may be trusted, and that its ends will be secured. Certainly Mr. Palmer's large dealings with Southern journals have been marked by correctness.—Norfolk Journal.

IMPORTANT ORDER BY GENERAL SICKLES.

HEADQ'RS, SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., April 11, 1867.

The general destitution prevailing among the population of this military district cannot be relieved without affording means for the development of their industrial resources. The nature and extent of the destitution demand extraordinary measures. The people are borne down by a heavy burden of debt; the crops of grain and garden produce failed last year; many families have been deprived of shelter, many more need food and clothing; needful implements and auxiliaries of husbandry are very scarce; the laboring population in numerous localities are threatened with starvation unless supplied with food by the government of the United States; the inability of a large portion of the people to pay taxes leaves the local authorities without adequate means of relief, and the gravity of the situation is increased by the general disposition shown by creditors to enforce upon an impoverished people the immediate collection of all claims. To suffer all this to go on without restraint or remedy is to sacrifice the general good. The rights of creditors shall be respected, but the appeal of want and suffering must be heeded. Moved by these considerations, the following regulations are announced, and they will continue in force, with such modification as the occasion may require, until the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the requirements of the government of the United States. The Commanding General earnestly desires and confidently believes that the observance of these regulations, and the co-operation of all persons concerned in employing fairly and justly the advantages still remaining to them, will mitigate the distress now existing, and that the avenues of industry, enterprize and organization thus opened will contribute to the permanent welfare and future happiness of the people:—

First—Imprisonment for debt is prohibited, unless the defendant in execution shall be convicted of a fraudulent concealment or disposition of his property with intent to hinder, delay and prevent the creditor in the recovery of his debt or demand; and the proceedings now established in North and South Carolina respectively for the trial and determining of such questions may be adopted.

Second—Judgment or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising between the 19th of December, 1860, and the 15th of May, 1865, shall not be enforced by execution against the property or the person of the defendant. Proceedings in such causes of action now pending shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be hereafter instituted or commenced for any such causes of action.

Third—Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend for twelve calendar months the sale of all property upon execution or process on liabilities contracted prior to the 19th of December, 1860, unless upon the written consent of the defendants, except in cases where the plaintiff, or in his absence his agent or attorney, shall upon oath, with corroborative testimony, allege and prove that the defendant is moving or intends fraudulently to remove his property beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the court. The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage is likewise suspended for twelve calendar months, except in cases where the payment of interest money accruing since the 15th day of May, 1865, shall not have been made before the day of sale.

Fourth—Judgments or decrees entered or enrolled on causes of action arising subsequent to the 15th of May, 1865, may be enforced by execution against the property of the defendant, and in the application of the money arising under such executions regard shall be had to the priority of liens, unless in cases where the good faith of any lien shall be drawn in question. In such cases, the usual mode of proceeding adopted in North and South Carolina respectively to determine that question shall be adopted.

Fifth—All proceedings for the recovery of money under contracts, whether under seal or by parole, the consideration for which was the purchase of negroes, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered or enrolled for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Sixth—All advances of moneys, subsistence, implements and fertilizers loaned, used, employed or required for the purpose of aiding the agricultural pursuits of the people shall be protected, and the existing laws which have provided the most efficient remedies in such cases for the lender will be supported and enforced. Wages for labor performed in the production of the crops shall be a lien on the crop, and payment of the amount due for such wages shall be enforced by the like remedies provided to secure advances of money and other means for the cultivation of the soil.

Seventh—In all sales of property and execution or by order of any court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances and twenty acres of land for the use and occupation of the family of the defendant, and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence, implements of trade, husbandry or other employment of the value of $500. The homestead exemption shall enure only to the benefit of families—that is to say, parent or parents and child or children—in other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing, implements of trade or other employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of $100. The exempted property of the defendant shall be ascertained by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall specifically describe the same and make a report thereof in each case to the Court.

Eighth.—The currency of the United States declared by the Congress of the United States to be a legal tender in the payment of all debts, dues and demands, shall be so recognized in North and South Carolina, and all cases in which the same shall be tendered in payment and refused by any public officer will be at once reported to these headquarters, or to the commanding officer of the post within which such officer resides.

Ninth—Property of an absent debtor or one charged as such without fraud, whether consisting of money advanced for the purposes of agriculture or appliances for the cultivation of the soil, shall not be taken under the process known as foreign attachment; but the lien created by any existing law shall not be disturbed, nor shall the possession or the use of the same be in any wise interfered with except in the execution of a judgment or final decree in cases where they are authorized to be enforced.

Tenth—In suits to recover ordinary debts known as actions ex contractu, bail, as heretofore authorized, shall not be demanded by the suitor nor taken by the sheriff or other officer serving the process; in suits for trespass, libel, wrongful conversion of property and other cases, known as actions ex delicto, bail, as heretofore authorized, may be demanded and taken. The prohibition of bail in cases ex contractu shall not extend to parties about to leave the State; but the fact of intention must be clearly established by proof.

Eleventh—In criminal proceedings the usual recognizances shall be required and taken by the proper civil officers heretofore authorized by law to take the same, provided that upon complaint being made to any magistrate or other person authorized by law to issue a warrant for breach of the peace or any criminal offence, it shall be the duty of such magistrate or officer to issue his warrant on the recognizance of the complainant to prosecute without requiring him to give security on such recognizance.

Twelfth—The practice of carrying deadly weapons, except by officers and soldiers in the military service of the United States, is prohibited. The concealment of such weapons on the person will be deemed an aggravation of the offence. A violation of this order will render the offender amenable to trial and punishment by military commission. Whenever wounding or killing shall result from the use of such weapons, proof of the party carrying or concealing a deadly weapon shall be deemed evidence of a felonious attempt to take the life of the injured person.

Thirteenth—The order heretofore issued in this military department prohibiting the punishment of crimes and offences by whipping, maiming, branding, stocks, pillory or other corporal punishment, is in force and will be obeyed by all persons.

Fourteenth—The punishment of death in certain cases of burglary and larceny imposed by the existing laws of the provisional governments in this military district is abolished. Any person convicted of burglary or of larceny, when the property stolen is of the value of $25, of assault and battery with intent to kill, or of any assault with a deadly weapon, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding ten years nor less than two years, in the discretion of the court having jurisdiction thereof. Larceny, when the value thereof is less than $25, shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding one year in the discretion of the court.

Fifteenth—The Governors of North and South Carolina shall have authority within their jurisdiction respectively to reprieve or pardon any person convicted and sentenced by a civil court and to remit fines and penalties.

Sixteenth—Nothing in this order shall be construed to restrain or prevent the operation of proceedings in bankruptcy in accordance with the acts of Congress in such cases made and provided for, with the collection of any tax, impost, excise or charge levied by authority of the United States or of the provisional governments of North and South Carolina; but no imprisonment for over-due taxes shall be allowed, nor shall this order or any law of the provisional governments of North and South Carolina operate to deny to minor children coming of age, or their legal representatives, nor to suspend as to them, any right of action, remedy or proceeding against executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, or other officers or persons holding a fiduciary relation to the parties or the subject matter of the action or proceeding.

Seventeenth—Any law or ordinance heretofore in force in North or South Carolina inconsistent with the provisions of this General Order is hereby suspended and declared inoperative.

By command of Major General D. E. SICKLES.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES,
EDITORS.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 20, 1867.

THE COLORED MEETING ON EASTER MONDAY.

We heard, on yesterday, that Mr. Holden and his minions were determined to break up or defeat the meeting to be held on Monday next. The plan was, first, to try to prevent the colored people attending the meeting; if that failed, then a body of Mr. Holden's satellites were to take seats early in the crowd, and, as soon as Gov. Worth arose to speak, they were to leave in a body.

To day's Standard confirms this rumor, so far as to show his wish to defeat the meeting if he can. It further betrays his alarm, lest the colored people should hear both sides and forsake him. Mr. Holden says:

"The men who are engaged in this business of inflaming the public mind, and dividing the colored people, will hesitate at nothing to advance their purposes."

This is the coolest piece of impudence out. For weeks, Mr. Holden and his friends have been addressing the colored people of Wake in different parts of the County. We learn that these speeches have been highly exciting and incendiary. No one has disturbed or replied to them. Nor has a speech or political address been made to them by any other parties except Mr. Holden's friends. His intimation that our sermon at the African Church contained political matter, is an arrant falsehood.

At an early period after Mr. Holden's friends commenced addressing the colored people on political subjects, respectable colored men of this city came to us and expressed a wish that some of the gentlemen in the city, in whom they had confidence and who made speeches, would address them. They also intimated that the colored people thought hard that such gentlemen as Gov. Worth, B. F. Moore, Esq., Gov. Bragg, Col. S. H. Rogers, Gen. Cox, K. P. Battle, Esq., Maj. Gales, R. H. Battle, jr., and others, had not proffered to address them on public affairs at this crisis.—We replied that none of these gentlemen were candidates for office, and therefore could not be expected to volunteer their services, but, from our knowledge of these gentlemen, if the colored people would hold meetings and invite them to address them, we had no doubt they would comply with their wishes. There the matter dropped until the present week. Several of them came to us early in the week and renewed their expressions of desire to hear those gentlemen address them, assuring us that they expressed the wishes of a large number of the colored people. They agreed to hold a meeting next Monday, applied in person to gentlemen to address them and to the Governor for the use of the Capitol Square. Ascertaining that Messrs. Moore, Bragg and Rogers would probably be at Halifax Court next week, they concluded to call upon Gov. Worth, Gen. Cox, Maj. Gales and R. H. Battle, jr. Esq. for next Monday, and invite other gentlemen hereafter. Gen. Cox declined, expecting to be absent; the others consented.

These are the simple facts in the whole matter. Where is the wrong? We have heard of no object to form a party, and we are sure that the gentlemen invited have no purpose to make partizan or exciting speeches. They understand the colored people desire information and want their views upon public affairs. Who has a right to complain?

Mr. Holden, with his usual impertinence, seems to assume that the colored people of Wake belong to him—that he has a bill of sale for them, and intends that they shall only hear such speeches, or seek advice from such persons, as he may select. Will the colored freemen of Wake submit to such dictation? Will they allow Mr. Holden to assume the entire political control of them, and lead them by the nose as he pleases? We hope not. We hope they will rebuke this insult, and will exercise their rights as freemen, and hear whom they please and vote for whom they please.

IT WOULD be a profitless and unnecessary task to attempt the political biography of the class of men in this State, and in the South at large, who are at present clamoring for confiscation, further disfranchisement, and other extreme and oppressive measures. When you have given the history and antecedents of one of them, you have given those of all.

For instance, at a recent meeting in Randolph County, in which one W. H. H. Conner was the ruling spirit, resolutions of the most vindictive and cruel spirit were adopted,—among others, one calling upon the Congress for the prompt passage of the robbery scheme of Mr. Stevens. This man Connor was a great "Tippecanoe and Tyler, too," man in 1840, (so was Holden,) and afterwards became a terrible Democrat, (so did Holden.) About the time of the Crooks and McBride excitement, he joined the abolition church and became an exhorter, but this didn't last long. He soon backslided and became the most rampant secessionist in the county of Randolph, and was one of the forty-five in that County, out of a vote of 2,500, who voted, in February, 1861, in favor of a Convention for taking North Carolina out of the Union, in advance of the border States. When conscription was threatened, he engaged in tramping hay under a Confederate Post Quartermaster. The next we hear of him he is, like Holden and Hunnicutt, for confiscation, for arraying the blacks against the whites, for the political degradation of the whites and for general ruin. "Birds of a feather, &c." Who, white or black, can have any confidence in such men?

PUBLIC MEETING IN PETERSBURG.

A very large number of the citizens of Petersburg, without regard to color, assembled at the Court House on Thursday evening, in persuance of a call previously published, to interchange views in relation to the political questions which are now agitating the country. All classes and conditions of society were represented, among whom the greatest interest was manifested.

Capt. Robt. D. McIlwaine presided, and Mr. J. Pinckney Williamson was appointed Secretary. A large number of Vice-Presidents were also appointed.

Capt. Jno. M. Lyon addressed the meeting, and the following resolutions were adopted:

The citizens of Petersburg, Va., in public meeting assembled, resolve and declare:

1st. That we agree to accept and perform, in good faith, the terms and conditions prescribed by the Congress of the United States, as the terms and conditions upon which Congress has agreed to restore Virginia to her place in the Union.

2nd. That we recognize and accept, as an essential part of said terms and conditions, the proposition, that the political power of the State, which has heretofore been wielded by white men alone, shall henceforth be possessed and exercised by white and black men alike.

3rd. That we will, therefore, insist that a new Constitution shall be framed for Virginia, which shall provide that all men, white or black, without reference to previous condition or servitude, shall be perfectly equal before the laws, both in respect to political privileges and power, and of civil rights; and that all laws creating distinctions or differences of any sort, between persons of different races, shall be unconstitutional, null and void.

4th. That we will support no candidate for the Convention who will not pledge himself to carry out, in good faith, the foregoing propositions; and to secure their adoption as part of the fundamental law of Virginia, we will co-operate cordially with all good men, white or black, who honestly desire the same result.

5th. We invite the colored men of Petersburg, freedmen and the born-free alike, to join us, to attend our political meetings, to participate in our deliberations, and express freely their opinions and wishes. And we assure them that they shall receive all the consideration and respect to which they are entitled, as equal participants with us in political power and legal rights.

The meeting was addressed by several colored speakers, who expressed their hearty concurrence in its objects and in the tone and spirit of the resolutions.

The speech of Mr. Lyon, a copious abstract of which is published in the Index, was of a conciliatory and conservative character and abounded in wholesome and excellent practical advice.

Letters were read from Col. Bolling, A. M. Keiley, Esq., and others, expressing sympathy with the objects of the meeting and regretting their inability to be in attendance.

* * *

A CATHOLIC SPIRIT.

The Old North State, in urging upon all a catholic, kind, forgiving and conservative spirit, as a demand of the times, thus alludes to the object of the Southern loyalists:

"One of the great objects of this party is to secure the election of a Convention in each of these States which will proceed to disfranchise a very large and intelligent class of our people by imposing a test-oath as a qualification for voters so drawn as to meet their particular case. It is true that this object is not openly avowed by the leaders in this State generally, but it crops out in the various mass meetings of the party held in the different Counties of the State. Not only does a design of this kind sometimes exhibit itself in their resolutions, but they even go further on some occasions and declare in favor of confiscation. It is useless to make an argument to convince men who are governed by reason, of the evils likely to result from our State Governments being so reconstructed, and those who are governed only by passion and prejudice cannot be reached by argument.

To defeat any attempt of that kind should be the first object of every man who desires the restoration of harmony, and the perpetuation of the Constitution of our fathers—the first object of every true patriot. In order to the accomplishment of an object so much to be desired, it is of the utmost importance that all who are opposed to disfranchisement and confiscation, of whatever name or whatever party, should be brought to act together in harmony in the election of the Convention—in no other way can it be accomplished. Among those who are deadly hostile to such measures, and who can be safely relied upon to oppose them in the Convention, are many well known Union men of talent whom we could mention. Nay, we even know gentlemen among those who class themselves with the Republican party in this State who, we feel quite sure, would never lend themselves to such schemes."

* * *

TO YOUR POST, NEIGHBOR.—North Carolina expects every man to do his duty in this crisis. For weeks we have noticed, at the editorial head of the Newbern Journal of Commerce, the following: "The Senior Editor is unavoidably absent for a short time," or something to that effect. We miss our confrere, and have grown tired looking at it. To-day, we are glad to see the notice taken down. We hope our friend, Col. Pool, is again on hand and ready to do yeoman service. If not, we beg our friend Shot-well to roll up his sleeves and Pool away until the Col. does come.

* * *

Forney still has on hand a few thousand copies of that great speech of Stevens, on confiscation, which he offers at perfectly ruinous rates, and of which we are happy to give him a gratuitous notice.—Exchange.

Holden still has on hand a few thousand copies of that great address of Mr. Jno. Pool's, which he will sell at a great sacrifice, and of which we are happy to give him a gratuitous notice.

* * *

YORKVILLE ENQUIRER.—This is one of the best weeklies we receive, outside of the State. It is handsomely printed on a large sheet and is edited with much taste and ability. One of its features, too, is, that it has a well written original story nearly every week. It is published at Yorkville, S. C., at $3,50 per annum, by Mr. L. M. Grist, and edited by Messrs. Wilson & Hart.

* * *

PERSONAL.—The article in to-day's Standard, devoted personally to the Senior Editor of this paper, is a tissue of falsehood and misrepresentation. The Sentinel cannot be devoted to personal matters.

PRETTY HARD.—Some friend has sent us a copy of the Journal, a paper published at Warrensburg, Missouri, from which we make the following marked extract. It will be seen that the Raleigh Standard is fast getting up a "national reputation:"

"We return our thanks to our old friend A. W. Ridings, Esq., of the banking firm of A. W. Ridings & Co., of this city, for presenting us with several copies of late North Carolina papers.

Among others, we notice the The Tri-Weekly Standard, published at Raleigh, North Carolina. In appearance, it is rather neat, bearing the impress of the care and experience of a good practical printer; but when so much is said for the thing, there is nothing else remains that is favorable to be told. From the tone of its editorials, its editor must have a cocoanut shaped head, and no doubt his nearest semblance to the human species is a cross between the orang-outang and monkey. We draw our inference from the mimikcing style in which he tries to imitate the more enligtened tone of his master Radical papers at the North.

The people of Raleigh know how to appreciate such vile slander, and in accordance with these views are bestowing their patronage. It is filled up from beginning to end with Northern advertisements, receiving its pecuniary encouragement from the same quarter from whence comes its vile and slanderous editorials.

We advise the editor of that kinky-headed sheet, to leave such a people, and seek other support than asking the patronage of those whom he is trying to dishonor and bring down to degradation. His calling is low, and his wisdom is small, and let him return from whence he came.

We seldom stoop to notice such papers, and when we do, it is with a contempt that we cannot forbear expressing. It is only fit for waste paper, and its editor would be an object of charity in a lunatic asylum."

* * *

SOME SENSE.—One J. Pinckney Williamson, of Petersburg, makes the following sensible appeal to all who are inclined to take part in the reconstruction plan of Congress, through the Petersburg Index:

"Why should there be more than one Union party in this city or State? Are we not all for the same end? Let us, of all color and races, work together until we are in the Union."

A RICH TREAT.—Since the days of our boyhood, when we used to hang trembling on the golden thoughts and burning words of Henry W. Miller and Duncan K. McRae, those North Carolina giants of Oratory, we have never experienced such delight as was occasioned by the eloquent lecture of the Rev. Jno. S. Long, delivered last night at the Thalian Hall. The subject was the "Ethics of History,"—a theme worthy of the orator, who was cetainly fully imbued with an appreciation of its grandeur and beauty and in every respect competent to handle it like a master. We have never seen an audience so completely spell-bound, as was that entranced assembly which drank in the glowing, passionate, moving eloquence of this most gifted genius. It is to be regretted that so few were in attendance; but we trust that none who have an appreciation for the sublime will absent themselves from the lecture to be delivered on Saturday evening, at the same place. The orator will lecture, on that occasion, on the "Life of Bishop Bascom."—Wilmington Dispatch.

* * *

AN UNHAPPY ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Columbus Enquirer, that a Mr. Hopkins shot and killed a negro woman in Savannah, a few days since, under the following circumstances: A man named Hardee was approaching Hopkins to assault him; in defence a pistol was used and the shot took effect on a woman. The evidence before the court did not justify an indictment for murder and the defendant was held to answer on a charge of manslaughter. Before these facts were developed the Shark party were about to seize upon the occurrence and charge that the killing was a piece of Southern brutality, but it was made known that Hopkins, although a native of Georgia, is a Union man, belonging to a strictly original Union family, and holding an important office under the U. S. Government.

Whereupon the Sharks snapped their teeth and regretted that Hopkins wasn't a "Rebel."—Norfolk Virginian.

A GOOD LAW.—Under a law of North Carolina, no doctor can collect his bills until found competent and licensed by the medical board of the State. This is a very good arrangement, but very severe on Ben. Allen and Bob Sawyer. We know one or two snake-root practitioners who stand a slim chance, if the law is enforced, of recovering their "little bills." It is curious to notice how certain John Doe is to get the best lawyer, at any price, where his property is in danger, and at the same time how anxious he is for a cheap doctor when his life only is at stake.—Norfolk Virginian.

* * *

THE JULY SESSION OF CONGRESS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Express, in alluding to the question of a session of Congress in July, says:

"The Express was right in the opinion expressed yesterday, that there will be no session of Congress in July. Over two-thirds of the Senators now here have no idea that a quorum of both Houses will be foolish enough to return to Washington in midsummer, for the prospect of gratifying such men an Butler, Schenck, Boutwell, and others of that class, who have openly declared in favor of impeachment and removal of the President on such unsupported charges as they have made in the House of Representatives and elsewhere.

The New York Commercial, a Republican paper, joins the cry against Hunnicutt and men of his ilk. In its issue of Wednesday it says:

"The course of Hunnicutt, in Virginia, who is endeavoring to organize the blacks secretly against the whites, is to be severely reprobated. Some of the Northern Radical journals take him to task, and at various meetings of negroes he is denounced. He is evidently a dangerous and pestilent agitator, who will signally fail in carrying out his bad purposes."

CHEAP CORN.—According to the Lincoln (N. C.) Courier, of the 12th, several lots of corn were sold in Lincoln County the previous week at from 54 to 50 cents per bushel, on a six months' credit. That paper states, in addition, something not very much to the credit of those concerned, when the distressed condition of the people of that region is taken into the account—that "large quantities of corn are now being held throughout the country, which will be put upon the market as soon as the prospect of the new crop can be ascertained; then it is expected, if the prospect be good, that corn will be sold at 40 to 50 cents."—Newbern Commercial.

EXAMPLE.—One watch set right will do to try many by; but on the other hand, one that goes wrong may be the means of misleading a whole neighborhood; and the same may be said of the example we individually set to those around us.

TRUTH.—It is not enough that we swallow truth; we must feed upon it, as insects do on the leaf, till the whole heart be colored by its qualities, and show its food in every fibre.—Coleridge.

A LAWSUIT GROWING OUT OF THE WAR.

In the United States Circuit Court at Baltimore, Tuesday, before Judge Giles, the case of Francis L. Smith, administrator of Aaron Legget vs. William and Francis X. Ward, was heard and decided. The suit was brought to collect three bonds executed in August, 1860, and payable at the office of the Farmer's Bank, in Alexandria, Virginia. One of the bonds was left at the bank, and the other two were not. The defendants, in August and December, 1861, deposited about $7,000 in Virginia Bank notes, then much depreciated, in the Farmer's Bank, to the credit of plaintiff. The cashier endorsed the deposits as credits on the first bond, and entered them as cash to the credit of plaintiff. In addition to this defense, it was claimed by defendant that the plaintiff having, in May, 1861, gone into the Confederate lines and remained there until the close of the war, was not entitled to recover interest during the war.

Judge Giles ruled, first, that the cashier of the bank had no authority, under the circumstances, to receive the depreciated Virginia bank notes and credit them for, and on the account of, plaintiff. Second, that the Farmer's Bank at Alexandria, where the notes were payable, being within the Federal lines, were constituted agents by plaintiff to receive payment of the notes—that the defendants could have paid the notes to the bank when they fell due, and, not having done so, the plaintiff was entitled to receive interest, notwithstanding he was in the Confederate army. The jury, under these instructions, rendered a verdict for plaintiff for $14,310. R. J. and J. L. Brent for plaintiffs; George William Brown and Arthur George Brown, Esqrs., for defendant.

MEXICO

The recent engagement at Queretaro lasted eight hours; the liberals were victorious, but the losses were very heavy on both sides. The besiegers had closed the circle around the city, and designed to reduce it by starvation. Provisions were very scarce and the typhus fever was prevailing. Miramon had been shot by order of Juarez. In reply to Escobedo's observation relative to the order to execute the hundred foreigners, that it would excite the animosity of foreign nations, Juarez replied, "Shoot them—what are to me the foreign nations." The following is from the Monterey Periodico, published in front of Queretaro:

"In a few days the place will be in our power, together with the emperor, the nobility, and the garrison, for we are besieging it with more than 24,000 men of well-disciplined and enthusiastic forces, while those in the city are demoralized and are short of provisions, and especially water. This we learn from prisoners in three reconnoisances made by them. In these three attempts we have taken about thirty prisoners, and they lost about as many dead. The forces with which we have have put them to flight were at least two-thirds inferior to their numbers."

The Courier de Mexique, published at Mexico, contains a long protest, signed by numerous Imperial officers, against the execution of the prisoners taken by the Liberals.

The Massachusetts Senate has passed a bill providing, 1. That no children under ten years of age shall be employed in any manufacturing or mechanical establishment, and no child between the ages of 10 and 14 shall so be employed, unless he has attended school six months during the year next preceding such employment, and provided that he shall have lived within the commonwealth the preceding six months; 2. That no child under 16 shall be employed more than sixty hours a week; 3. That persons offending, either owners, agents, superintendents or parents, shall forfeit for each offence $40.

The New York Radicals do not nominate colored citizens for seats in the State Convention. This is remarkable when they have so many among them of this class possessing education and ability. Even Greely seems to have forgotten his "manhood suffrage" principles, and consents to go to the polls on the question of adopting the organic law without his brother.—Boston Post.

EMERSON ETHERIDGE NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR BY THE DEMOCRACY OF TENNESSEE.—The Conservative Union Convention met in Nashville on the 10th. Hon. Ellijah Walker was chosen President. The attendance was quite large, including a number of colored delegates. A Conservative platform was adopted, and Emerson Etheridge was nominated for Governor.

One of the colored delegates in the Richmond Republican Convention announces that if Congress does not give lands in the South to the negroes, he will go in for taking it by violence. The colored individual will have to be reconstructed.—Petersburg Express.

PORTSMOUTH, VA., March 22d. 1867.

IT has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained, and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. If this is complied with, and the Manager of the Seaboard Road receives the letter, he gives assurance that it shall be promptly investigated and replied to.

THE SENTINEL.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 20, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mr. W. H. Hamilton offers for sale that valuable property known as "Runnymede," on the Western suburbs of the City.

Weeding Hoes, Castings, &c: B. P. Williamson & Co.

The same firm also offer for sale a choice assortment of Wines.

MAYOR'S COURT.—J. Gallagher, for intoxication and disorderly conduct, was lodged in the Guard House and fined $2.

Patrick Frizelle, formerly of Co. H., 8th. U. S. Infantry, was arrested for taking, by force, the provisions of a colored woman from her own house. He was lodged in the Guard House and fined $5.

COMMISSIONERS OF CLAIMS.—We call special attention to the advertisement of the Commissioners of Claims. Let all concerned attend to their suggestions.

VALUABLE TOWN PROPERTY.—We would call special attention to the Hon. Kenneth Rayner's advertisement of the sale of highly valuable property in and near this city. This property is all of the most desirable and attractive character, and, on account of the very low rates at which it is offered, presents great inducements to those wishing to purchase. Mr. Rayner's engagements and plans have determined him to dispose of his interests in North Carolina at this great sacrifice. He will leave the State in the course of a few weeks, with his estimable family, from whom our citizens generally will be most reluctant to part.

NORTH CAROLINA PRESS.—The Weekly and Semi-Weekly press of this State, we are pleased to say, was never more ably and efficiently conducted than at the present time. We most sincerely wish them all success. Beginning in the East, we find the Washington Index, Tarboro Southerner, Wilson North Carolinian, Weldon State, Warrenton Indicator and Courier, Henderson Index, Hillsboro Recorder, Fayetteville News, Greensboro Patriot, Winston Sentinel, Independent Press, Concord, Statesville American, Wadesboro Argus, and Asheville News. These are all conservative in their tone and are conducted with ability and sprightliness. They will compare well with the weeklies of any other State. The Union Register, at Greensboro, and Charlotte Democrat, are their equals in ability, but the Register is out and out Radical, and the Democrat, we are sorry to say, we know not where to class. There are also the Salem Observer, Hendersonville Pioneer and Rutherford Star, all intensely Radical, but as we do not read them, we express no opinion. The Salisbury Watchman, a good weekly, was in existence some time since, but we have not seen it, and do not know whether it is published or not. Our Tri-Weeklies are also well conducted. The Old North State, and the Banner, at Salisbury, and the Lincoln Courier, are conservative—the Raleigh Standard, Radical. All these, we believe, also issue Weeklies.

Of the daily press of the State, we must speak modestly. Their readers are judges of their merits. Beginning East again, we have the Commercial and Journal of Commerce, at Newbern, the News at Goldsboro, the Journal and Dispatch at Wilmington, the Progress and Sentinel at Raleigh, and the Times and Guardian at Charlotte. All these issue Weeklies, also, and the Sentinel is daily, semi-weekly and weekly. Besides these, we have the Recorder (Baptist) and Episcopal Methodist at Raleigh, and the Presbyterian, at Fayetteville, of the religious press and excellent papers. Also the Square and Compass, weekly, a Masonic paper, and the Deaf Mute Casket, monthly, at Raleigh, the Red String, at Greensboro, and last, but the best of all, Gen. Hill's monthly, the "Land We Love," at Charlotte. Thus we have in operation 51 newspapers, if we are correct in estimating the weeklies of those that are published daily and tri-weekly, and a monthly Magazine which has a fine circulation.

SAD AFFAIR.—Several little boys in Wilmington being together, one of them had a loaded pistol and dropped it on the pavement, when it exploded, lodging its contents in the lungs of Edward Love, son of Capt. E. T. Love, of that city. The Dispatch says he died from the wound in an hour. Boys cannot be too careful in the use of fire-arms.

SOUTHERN ORPHAN'S ASSOCIATION.—Mrs. J. L. Hammond, President, Mrs. E. A. F. Meares, Treasurer, and Mrs. McCubbin and Mrs. Schiers, Trustees, have published a card relative to the recent difficulties in the Southern Orphan's Association. We make the following extracts, with the simple remark that the high character of the ladies mentioned is a perfect guarantee of the truth of all their statements:

"We invite an examination of our books and the funds now accumulating in bank, subject to the order of the Association, for the purpose of erecting the home and school for the orphans of the "Confederate dead" in the city of Richmond, Virginia. Nothing that we can say will testify more accurately the correctness of our plans than an investigation of our books and funds, and it was because we, as custodians of these treasures, would not surrender them to dishonest men, that we are now subject to their persecutions and abuse.

We have seen the horrors and devastation of the late war, and know the immense amount of suffering occasioned by it.—Homes were rendered cheerless by the loss of its head, who fell fighting for the homes of the South, and it was our sympathy for the poor and friendless orphans of the South that caused us to enter into the resolution of securing for them a home and providing an education, as may render them hereafter good and useful citizens of a free and happy land.

We confess, however, that if we could have looked through the future and seen the trials and persecutions to which we are subjected, we would have never attempted to begin so thankless a work. But now, having embarked in it, our reputation is at stake, and we must build the Home and School; therefore we call upon all good people to assist us toward the completion of our work by discrediting the assertions made by our enemies. And we ask—nay, we demand—that those papers whose opinions were founded upon the acts of our employees, should give to the public our statements, and modify their assertions so as to be in strict accordance with the facts.

Not long since Messrs. L. T. Palmer & Co. published a card which, as we approved it then, we will officially endorse it now, that the information contained therein may go forth to the public with every guarantee for its truthfulness.

In consequence of the delay occasioned by the conduct of the persons above alluded to, we have been compelled to inform our managers to postpone the Concert until the 17th day of June, 1867, that we may be able to begin the building as soon as our Concert business shall end."

THE ANNUAL Convention of the Episcopal Church in this Diocese takes place, at Wilmington, on the 15th. of May, instead of the 7th., as heretofore stated in this paper. See announcement in our advertising columns.

WE HAD the pleasure of a visit, this morning, from our venerable friend, DENNIS HEARTT, Esq., of the Hillsboro' Recorder.—The Recorder is by far the oldest journal in the State, and we presume that Mr. Heartt is, perhaps, the oldest Editor in the Union. May he live yet many years!

JAIL DELIVERY.—A few nights since, four negro men succeeded in breaking jail in Newbern, and effecting their escape.—Their names are John Becton, charged with larceny, awaiting trial; Jim Hammond and Hinton Battle, convicted of larceny and undergoing sentence—Hammond detained for costs, Battle to wear ball and chain; and George Dixon, awaiting his trial on a charge of stealing turpentine. There were nine prisoners confined in the apartment, but only the above named four escaped. The escape was effected by cutting through the grating of a second story window and using their blankets as a rope by which to descend to the ground.

HOMICIDE.—The Goldsboro' News understands that an affray occurred between the freedmen employed on the farm of Col. Adam Heath, near Smithfield, a few days since, in which fire-arms were used extensively, resulting in the death of two of the combatants. Several of the surviving party have been arrested and lodged in Smithfield jail.

CONSOLIDATION.—The consolidation of the Railroads in Virginia, leading from Tennessee to Norfolk, has been effected, by the passage of the bill by both Houses of the Legislature. We hope it may prove as successful and profitable as its friends anticipate.

REV. JNO. L. NEWBY.—A Mr. James Newby, Delphi, Carroll Co., Indiana, writes to the Progress, of this City, enquiring for Rev. John L. Newby and his children. We are able to answer that Rev. Jno. L. Newby died in Fayetteville, in 1861 or '62. His children were in Wilmington the last we heard. Their friends would do well to write to Mr. Jas. Newby, Delphi, Carroll Co. Ind.

NOTICE—FOR RENT.

BANQUET TO THE PRESS ASSOCIATION—GOV. JENKINS.

ATLANTA, April 19.

The Southern Press Convention, after a harmonious session of three days, adjourned sine die today, at one o'clock. It meets next year in Augusta. The arrangement with the New York Associated Press continues.

A grand complimentary banquet was given to the Press last night by the citizens of Atlanta—Speeches were made by Judge Whitaker, W. G. Clark, Hon. Erastus Brooks, Gen. Wright, Hon. R. J. Moses, Col. Glenn and others, of a highly conservative and satisfactory character.

Gov. Jenkins arrived here from Washington, this morning.

SOUTHERN AGENT FOR THE PEABODY SCHOOL FUND.

NEW YORK, April 19.

John E. Ames, of Atlanta, Ga., has been appointed, by the general managers of the Peabody Educational Fund, travelling agent for the South. He starts to-night for Atlanta, where communications for him should be addressed.

The Trustees have decided, for the present, to confine assistance to languishing common schools, or to those which cannot be organized, where needed, without aid. In a few instances, moderate appropriations will be made for genuine normal schools. All aid will be temporary. No agencies will be established.

JUDICIAL DECISION.

BOSTON, April 19.

Judge Lowell, of the United States District Court, has decided that the Clyde built steamer, Cyrene, captured in Ashley river, when Charleston surrendered, and which was condemned as a prize, was a prize to the Government, and not to the blockading fleet, as claimed. The Government claimed that her capture was as much the result of the army besieging Charleston, as that of the navy.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

No steps have been taken toward the international Convention between Spain, Chili and Peru, which was to have been held in this city,—the two latter powers not yet having met the advance of the Spanish Government in that respect. The Spanish Minister is daily expecting a communication of willingness of the latter powers to accept the arbitration of the United States.

The ship Golconda, belonging to the Liberia colonization society, will sail from Baltimore, on the first of May, with a full cargo and twenty-five passengers. She will touch at Charleston, S. C., where three hundred passengers are engaged to embark.

MEXICAN NEWS.

NEW ORLEANS, April 19.

Matamoras advices of the 13th. says that the Liberals have captured Puebla. Maximilian offered to surrender, but his overtures were rejected. The Liberals refused to grant the terms demanded by Maximilian.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 20.

A protracted debate was had yesterday in the Senate, on the nomination of Raymond, as Minister to Austria. The nomination was laid on the table. This has the effect to lay the nomination over until December, and to retain Motly in the position. As Motly had resigned, some hold that the place is vacant.

Judge Fisher has not yet given his opinion upon the motion to postpone Surratt's trial; but is expected to do so to-day.

The registration, so far, shows that the whites have a majority of one hundred and one.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

AT A CALLED communication, held in Deep River Lodge, March 28th, 1867, A. L. 5867:

The Lodge being opened in due form, a committee of three was appointed to draw up a preamble and resolutions, relative to the death of our highly esteemed and worthy brother, DR. HENRY M. FOUST, who died March 26th, 1867, aged 39 years and 11 days. His disease was Chronic Gastro Enteritis, in connection with an organic disease of the Liver. Our departed brother had a long and protracted illness; suffered the most excruciating pain, bearing his afflictions with great fortitude—scarcely a murmur escaping his lips; but finally the powers of life failed, the vital current was arrested in its channels, and he sank, after having been confined the greater part of the time for eleven months. We deeply deplore his loss and bow with humble submission to the will of the Divine Architect, believing his death to be our loss but his eternal gain. He leaves a widow and five little children.

In early life, he chose the practice of medicine as a profession, and, by his skill and great success, reflected honor upon himself and added to the profession a name which should ever be held dear. Our departed brother was a man of more than ordinary talent—always kind and obliging, ever ready to administer to the wants of the needy and destitute, generous and benevolent to all, making every one feel pleasant and happy around him; was a good husband, a kind father, an ornament to the Fraternity and to the community in which he lived; in short was universally beloved and respected by all who knew him.

Resolved, That, as it hath pleased the Divine Master of the universe to remove our brother from this transitory existence, and to weaken the chain, by which we are linked one to another, may his death remind us of our own, and incline us who survive him to be more strong in the ties of union and friendship.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That we ever cherish the memory of our departed brother and devote ourselves to the sacred tenets of our order, that we may, when our pilgrimage is ended, be found worthy to enter that Grand Temple above.

Resolved, That we extend to the distressed family that sympathy which we, as members of the Fraternity, cannot fail to give, and that we commend them all to the protecting hand of Him who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the Weekly Sentinel for publication.

Resolved, That a copy be sent the family and they be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge; also, that the Secretary inscribe a blank page to the memory of our departed brother.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee that the picture is what it purports to be. FERTILIZERS

FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.00
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

SUNDAY READING.

THE HEAVENLY CITY.

I know her walls are jasper, her palaces are fair,
And to the sound of harpings the saints are singing there;
I know that living waters flow under fruitful trees—
But ah! to make my heaven it needeth more than these.

Read on the sacred story; what more doth it unfold,
Besides the pearly gateways, and the streets of shining gold?
No temple hath that city, for none is needed there;
No sun nor moon enlightens; can darkness, then, be fair?

Ah! now the glad revealing, the crowning joy of all,
What need of other sunlight where God is all in all?
He fills the wide ethereal with glory all His own,
He whom my soul adoreth, the Lamb amid the throne!

O, heaven without my Saviour would be no heaven to me;
Dark were the walls of jasper, rayless the crystal sea.
He gilds earth's darkest valley with light and joy and peace;
What, then, must be the radiance when night and death shall cease?

Speed on, O lagging moments! Come, birthday of the soul!
How long the night appeareth, the hours, how slow they roll!
How sweet the welcome summons that greets the willing bride!
And when mine eyes behold Him I shall be satisfied.

HARRY'S SERMON.

"Eddie," said Harry, "let's play at going to church; and I'll be minister, and preach you a sermon."

"Well," said Eddie, "and I'll be the people."

So they went up stairs together. Harry set an old fire screen up in front of him, by way of a pulpit, and thus began:—

"My text is a very short and easy one—'Be kind.' There are some little texts in the Bible on purpose for little children; and this is one of them. These are the heads of my sermon:

Firstly. Be kind to father, and don't make a noise when he has a headache. I don't believe you know what a headache is, but I do. I had one once, and I didn't want to hear any one speak.

Secondly. Be kind to mother, and don't make her tell you to do a thing more than once. It is very tiresome to say, 'It is time for you to go to bed,' half a dozen times over.

"Thirdly. Be kind to baby."

"You have left out, 'Be kind to Harry,'" broke in Eddie, forgetting that he was "the people."

"Yes," said Harry, "I didn't mean to mention my own name in my sermon. I was saying—Be kind to little Minnie, and let her have your red soldier to play with, when she wants it."

Here Eddie looked a little ashamed, and said,—

"But she pulled my hair with the comb."

"People mustn't talk in church," said Harry.

"Be kind to Kitty, and do what will make her purr, and don't do what will make her scratch and squeak."

"Isn't the sermon nearly done?" asked Eddie. "I want to sing;" and without waiting for Harry to finish his discourse, or to give out a hymn, he began to sing; and so Harry had to stop; but it was a very good sermon after all. Don't you think so? —The Christian.

SKETCH OF LUTHER.

A coarse, rugged, plebeian face it was, with great crags of cheek-bones—a wild amount of passionate energy and appetite! But in his dark eyes were floods of sorrow, and the deepest melancholy sweetness was all there. Often did there seem to meet in Luther the very opposite points in man's character. He, for example, of whom Ritcher had said his words were half-battles, he, when he first began to preach, suffered unheard agony. "Oh, Dr. Staupitz, Dr. Staupitz," said he to the vicar-general of his order, "I cannot do it, I shall die in three months. Indeed I cannot do it."

Dr. Staupitz, a wise and considerate man, said upon this: "Well, Sir Martin, if you must die, you must; but remember that they need good heads up yonder, too. So preach, man, preach, and then live or die, as it happens." So Luther preached and lived, and he became, indeed, one great whirlwind of energy to work without resting in this world; and also before he died he wrote very many books—books in which the true man is found, for, in the midst of all they denounced and cursed, what touches of tenderness lay. Look at the Table Talk for example.—Carlyle.

SHOULD WE COMPEL OUR CHILDREN TO GO TO CHURCH?—I was once spending some weeks with a Christian friend, who was a widow, with a large family of children and servants. I observed that she made the children regularly attend church, and persuaded the servants, likewise, to go. "Why do you endeavor to take your family all to church, I asked, whether they desire it or not?—you know many disapprove of this course." "When I was a little girl," she replied, "my mother, one Sunday morning, told me to prepare for going to church." "I don't want to go to church," I said. My mother sat down, and gently drew me near her, saying, "My daughter, don't you think I know what is best for you?" I made some petulant reply, although somewhat in doubt as to the propriety of speaking thus to her, and went off to my room in no very amiable mood, to get ready, knowing I was obliged to go.

"Many years have passed since this conversation, my friend. I believe the respect for the Christian religion instilled into my heart, when my mother compelled me to go constantly to church, has saved me from being an infidel and made me a Christian; and I am endeavoring to teach the children growing up around me, to tread the same path in which my mother had led me."

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT.—A Radical letter writer to the Cincinnati Gazette is very sparing of his praise to the Judges of the United States Supreme Court. Of the nine members he says:

"Three represent its ability and loyalty.—Three are unadulterated Copperheads, and these, with one other, are broken down by age, while the two remaining ones are very conservative, to speak mildly, and, besides, far from brilliant lawyers."

The three that monopolize the "loyalty" of the Court, as a Radical understands that term, are Judges Chase, Swayne and Miller. Field and Davis are the "conservative" Republicans; Grier, Clifford and Nelson the "Copperheads," and Wayne the "one other."

The youngest bank President in New England is Charles Ingalls, President of the South Adams National Bank, who is only twenty five years old.

The farm of Daniel Webster, at Franklin, is offered for sale. The place contains about 950 acres of land, and Mrs. Webster's furniture can [illegible]

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as "the Sherman-Shellabarger bill." We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary Act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same, and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter every person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emoluments thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that, to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office and rendered incapable forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States approved March 2 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God." which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution therefor under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.

This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
